

Special Request Lessons - Case Study 3

Client Case Study	Yoshimi Ishikawa
	Snapshots New 7
Every Lesson Instructions
Special Requests	Guided Conversation Yoshimi finds her textbook repetitive.
Current Usage	Work Yoshimi uses English in daily work situations. She has weekly meetings with her foreign colleagues.
Future Goals	Communication Her goal is to communicate smoothly in any situation. She would like to improve her comprehension in meetings.
Warm Up	Ask Ask if she has a request, then suggest an interesting conversation topic.
Mistake Correction	Gentle but strict Write everything down for her to review later. Allow her time to respond and self-correct.
Lesson Focus	Expansion She doesn't want to sound too formal in meetings since they're usually a bit more friendly and casual.
Atmosphere	Helpful Helpful, gentle lessons.
Client Profile
Occupation International trading company (Logistics Manager)
Hobbies Visiting museums, Pilates, Baking (sweets & pastry)
Travel Experience Experience: USA (California) and Canada. (Next Trip: Europe)
Social Style Amiable	